

Learn About Brazil Through a Traveling Cat

Sucheta Rawal releases her 5th book – Beato Goes To Brazil in October 2019

Beato Goes To Brazil is the fifth book in a series of children’s picture books that teaches kids about the world. In Brazil, Beato travels with Amanda Villa-Lobos (from Rio) to learn about Amazon rainforests, famous Rio Carnival, diversity of people that make up Brazil, and the different kinds of sports they play. The colorful illustrations in the book are based on the author’s travels to Brazil, and the characters are real Brazilian people living in Atlanta, including famous Brazilian samba dancer, Andrea Moreira.

Atlanta-based author, Sucheta Rawal is an award-winning food and travel writer. As the founder of the nonprofit Go Eat Give, Sucheta’s personal mission is to raise cultural and diversity awareness of different countries with adults and kids.

Originally from India, Sucheta has traveled to 90+ countries. She has been a freelance writer for various publications, including CNN, Travel+Leisure, and The Huffington Post.

Sucheta was named “One of the Five Most Influential Cultural Bloggers in The World”, awarded “40 Under 40 - Georgia’s Best and Brightest” twice in Georgia, and nominated for “Georgia’s Author of the Year” in children’s books category.

Beato Goes To published by Virginia-based Mascot Books, is appropriate for ages 4-8 and make for great international learning tools. Beato’s other adventures include Beato Goes to Greenland focusing on environment, Beato Goes to Israel discussing religious diversity, Beato Goes to Indonesia on endangered animals, and Beato Goes to Japan that talk about the importance of respecting elders.
